

WAYNE BARRATT

Community Liaison Officer of the Black Country Constructing Excellence Club.

Managing Director

Wayne has worked in the construction industry for over 25 years. Since leaving Art & Design college in Kent he has been self employed.

He now runs his own Painting, Decorating and Cladding contractors where his daughter is one of the team working alongside him as a Painter & Decorator. He is experienced in working with both the private and public sector.

In 2007 Wayne became the Community Liaison Officer of the Black Country Constructing Excellence Club and is responsible for organising our April Founding Event.
